

Director : Kim O'Neil

The Old Post Office, The Street,

Compton, Surrey GU3 1ED. UK

Phone : + 44 1483 811 311

E-mail : kim.oneil@aatl.net

Web site : www.aatl.net

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd. works with Airlines, Airports, Manufacturers, Aviation Administrations and the European Commission to assist in the deployment of CNS/ATM solutions to improve Safety, Capacity and Efficiency in Civil Aviation.

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd. is an Aviation Safety and Regulatory Consultancy. It is able to provide technical support and advice in the following areas :

- Standards, Certification and Institutional issues
- Legislation and Regulatory Issues
- Certification Support for New Technologies
- Evaluation of New Technologies
- Business Case Development
- ATM and Avionics Market Studies
- International CNS/ATM Projects
- Project Management
- Safety Management

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd. can advise on all aspects of Communication, Navigation and Surveillance design and implementation in Air Traffic Management (CNS/ATM). This includes Aircraft, Airport and ATM infrastructure issues including both operational and technical aspects.

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd. can advise on the Safety, Certification and Operation of Hardware, Software, Systems and Procedures for both ground and airborne equipments and systems.

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd. has carried out significant work in satellite navigation and related telecommunication services including data-links (VDL) and applications such as ADS-B. AAT's work has contributed to the development of International Standards at ICAO, Eurocae, ETSI and elsewhere.

Advanced Aviation Technology : Implementing GNSS Solutions today.

Advanced Aviation Technology Ltd.

